SOLDIERS ASSAULT STATION MASTER.

INCIDENT AT DALWALI STATION.

(Associated Press.)

SIMLA, June 29.

A Punjab Government press communique says on May 20th a fracas took place at Dalwali station between certain European soldiers and the station staff. Enquiry shows that the fracas originated in the refusal of the station staff to allow a supply of water to a dog which belonged to one of the soldiers and in the use of provocative expressions on the part of some of the station officials. This led to an assault on the station-master by two of the soldiers. These two soldiers have been sent up for trial before the civil authorities.

MALTREATMENT OF A MOTOR DRIVER.

POLICE CONSTABLE'S REPREHENSIBLE CONDUCT.

SEVERE MAGISTERIAL STRICTURES.

At the Girgaon Police Court before the bench of Honorary Magistrate consisting of Messrs. B. S. Turkhad and Khinji Heerji Kavani, Sub-Inspector Raje charged Shanker Raoji, a motor driver with disorderly behaviour on the 24th May, 1922.

The judgment of the Count which we give below elucidated all the facts of the case.

JUDGMENT.

"The accused Shankar Raoji who is a motor driver of a car belonging to Mr. Kilachand Devchand is in this case charged with the disorderly behaviour in a public place under Section 122 of the Police Act. The case for the prosecution is that on the 24th ultimo at about 4-15 p.m. Police Constable No. 1991/C, who is a patrol man, was standing talking to Police Constable No. 3009/C who was on post duty near the Girgaon Portuguese Church. In the meanwhile the accused's car struck him while the latter was backing it. On Police Constable No. 1991/C remonstrating with him, the accused got out of his car, caught him by his coat and gave him a fist on his jaw with the result that his tongue was slightly cut and he bled from it. Thereupon the Police Constable arrested him and wanted to take him to the Lamington Road Police station for being charged. The accused resisted and a large crowd collected on the road. Help was sent for from the Police station and ultimately the accused went there and he is charged as mentioned above.

"The accused pleads not guilty to the charge. He has put in a written statement in which among other things he states that on the day in question when he stopped his car, Police Constable No. 1991/C abused him alleging that the car struck him. On his telling him not to abuse him, the Policeman caught him by the neck, pressed him against the bracket of the lamp and the bracket broke. That he fell on the machine and the two Police constables assaulted him badly. His witnesses Messrs. Dane, Pai and H. K. Mantri, who were in the crowd gave their names to him. That the Police constables finding that they were in the wrong falsely charged him with disorderly behaviour. He further states that he told all this to Sub-Inspector Mr. Raje and showed him the broken bracket, at the Lamington Road Police station.

"NOT A SINGLE INDEPENDENT WITNESS."

"The prosecution is supported by the testimony of the two Policemen and one Nana Tukaram, a Victoria Driver, who was at some distance from the scene of occurrence and who, as the learned Pleader for the defence Mr. Dhondi has rightly put, depends a great deal on the mercies of the Policemen in plying his trade. This witness confirms the story of the Policemen and add that on account of the obstructive conduct of the accused he was asked to go to the Police station and fetch more Police help. He did so and brought some Policemen but curiously enough none of these have been called as a witness nor the the name or number of any of these appears on the charge sheet. Beyond these three witnesses, out of the crowd of three to four hundred people according to the estimate of Police Constable No. 1991/C himself, not a single independent witness is called to prove the prosecution case. If the Policeman was assaulted and if on account of the conduct of the accused large crowd collected as the Policeman wants the Court to believe, surely with the further help that they received from the Police station, some attempt could have been made to secure independent testimony. On the contrary the conduct of the Policemen was such that these respectable people from the crowd gave their names voluntarily to the accused on the spot, and came to give evidence at great inconvenience to themselves, especially so when the Court held special sittings in the evening for hearing this particular case. Even the Prosecuting Officer, Sub-Inspector Mr. Raje, could not allege anything against the three witnesses Mr. Dave, Mr. Pai and Mr. H. K. Mantri. Police Constable No. 1991 admits that Mr. Pai was there but he says he came after everything was over. Mr. Dane, he says, was not there. On this point he cannot be relied on because he himself admits that the crowd was very large and it is highly improbable to say that he saw the faces of every one in the crowd. The three defence witnesses are eminently respectable and absolutely independent and the Court does not see any reason why it should not believe their evidence entirely.

"The statement of the accused in the Court is the same as he made immediately after the occurrence to the Sub-Inspector Mr. Raje who very fairly admits that it was so and he also admits that the accused immediately showed him the broken bracket. The Court has no hesitation in accepting the statement of the accused coupled with the defence evidence in preference to the story put up by the two Policemen.

"REPREHENSIBLE CONDUCT."

"From the evidence disclosed in this case the Court is satisfied that the two Police Constables, especially Police Constable No. 1991/C very roughly handled and maltreated the accused. If a Policeman lays his hands violently on a member of the public as is done in this cause by Police Constable No. 1991/C and if in self defence the former assaults the Policeman, no Court will punish him. In this case the conduct of Police Constable No. 1991/C is highly reprehensible and deserves to be severely censured and taken serious notice of by the higher authorities.

"Taking all the circumstances into consideration and the evidence on both the sides the Court is of opinion that the accused is innocent of the charge and he is, therefore, ordered to be acquitted. The Court directs that a copy of this judgment be sent to the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, for such action as he may deem fit."

THEFT OF CHEQUES.

At the Esplanade Police Court, before Mr. G. R. Khairaz, Acting Third Presidency Magistrate, Deputy Inspector Merrifield charged Premlal Tilak, a Pardesi, with theft in respect of two cheques for Rs. 250 and Rs. 310 respectively.

When taken out he was found dead. His body was removed to the morgue.

Mr. Merwanji Manekji, Engineer of the Western India Mill, said that he had examined the wall and found that the lower portion of it was weak. Water was passing through the holes in it. It was a very old wall. Messrs. Parker and Sykes, Civil Engineers of the mill, examined the wall on the 26th instant and told witness to pull it down at once, otherwise they said, it would fall.

After the evidence had been recorded, the jury returned a verdict that the death was caused by a portion of the compound wall of the Western India Mill, which was in a decayed condition, having fallen on him.

FINANCE.

Money market is easy with Inter-Bank call money rate being about 3½ per cent. The Imperial Bank's cash balance is up by about Rs. 407 lakhs, and the Bank-rate is unchanged. It is quite possible that we shall see the Bank-rate down to 4 per cent. next week. It is generally believed money market would remain easy until middle of October and we hope the new Rupee loan will be a great success. It is quite possible that foreign markets will also invest their money in the new loan.

Exchange was a steady market round 1/3 5/8. The demand for bullion T. T. has fallen off, while bills are also scarce. The undertone of the market is healthy.

Gold was an easy market owing to decreasing up-country demand and the stocks are fairly large. The daily off-take is about 16,000 tolas and the stock is estimated at about six lakhs tolas.

Silver moved within narrow limits and the volume of business put through was insignificant. The daily off-take was about 60 bars and the stock about 3200 bars.

The Shanghai/London rate was 3/6½ per tael. Hongkong/London 2/7 per dollar.

SHARES.

This being the settlement week a large business was done in the market both for July and August deliveries. Bear-covering was one of the principal features of the market, and in Davids, Currims and Kohinoors, Bulls were unloading their holdings to Bears. Nagpurs and Swadeshis are neglected for the present.

In consequence of great difference of opinion in the managing committee, five members, including the president, have tendered their resignation. An extra-ordinary meeting of the brokers will be held shortly to consider many important things and we sincerely trust all members will attend the same and vote conscientiously. The real issue before the market is whether we should let things drift or make such changes as will remove the causes altogether which make the stock exchange like "one man's market." We shall await the result of the meeting before making any further comments on the subject.

Our one advice to the Bears is to cover sales and trade slowly, and this is the positive cure for the disease which has set deep into the market. If Bears cover and do not sell short, the Bulls will be landed with stocks which they must nurse for a long time.

In the miscellaneous section, the market was dull and un-interesting. The rise in Tata Deferreds was short-lived, the closing rate being Rs. 252-8. Bank shares were steady. Imperial Banks round Rs. 1,425 and Tata Industrial Bank about Rs. 17-4.

Market closed easy; budlis were done in some mill-shares on a basis of 15 per cent. interest.

The following are the closing rates of the Bombay Stock Exchange:—

HOME MARKETS.

During the week under review home markets show a sharp decline both in Liverpool and New York as compared with the last week. After the recent steady advance in the Home Markets a week ago on reports of unfavourable weather and good trade demand, there has been a sharp reaction during the week under review as a result of improved weather there, and favourable crop news. In spite of all this the Home Markets remain very steady and we think the time may come shortly when we may see a complete change of sentiments in the market, in which case prices are likely to advance further. Reports from Lancashire also seem more hopeful and unless cheeked by unfavourable outside influence it looks as though the advance may go further. The immediate future of our market will depend largely on what the American markets do.

The demand far ready cotton has continued good with a fairly large inquiry from Exporters and local Millwalas, and about 35,000 Bs. are reported to have been sold.

The following were the changes in the Home Markets as compared with a week ago:—

| | last week | this week |
|---|---|---|
| Liverpool July | 13.41 | 12.67—76 |
| Liverpool October | 13.05 | 12.34—71 |
| Liverpool January | 12.72 | 12 01—71 |
| New York July | 22.40 | 21.62—85 |
| New York October | 22.42 | 21.57—85 |
| New York January | 22.18 | 21.28—92 |

LOCAL FORWARD MARKET.

Fully Good mg. Broach July-August opened on the 22nd instant at Rs. 525 and went up till Rs. 531 on buying by European Houses and Marwari Operators on the 24th instant. From this level it eased to Rs. 510½ on 27th instant in accordance with continued lower advices reported from Home Markets, and closed on the 28th instant at Rs. 515½. Fine mg., Oomra July opened at Rs. 462½ on the 22nd instant and the prices fluctuated between Rs. 462 and Rs. 465 till 24th instant. From this level it dropped to Rs. 447 on selling by Marwaris. It again improved to Rs. 456 and closed at Rs. 453 on the 28th instant. While Oomra September opened at Rs. 480 on the 22nd instant and the prices fluctuated within the range of three rupees till 24th instant. ## TENNIS AT WIMBLEDON.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 29.

To-day's programme at Wimbledon did not provide any surprises, although the Centre Court was the scene of many interesting international duels.

The first round match, between the American, Dean Mathey, resulted in the defeat of the Belgian, Washer, by 0—8, 6—2, 6—2, 7—5. Mathey used an all-steel racquet but discarded it after he had lost the first three games.

In the second round matches the Australians, Patterson and O'Hara Wood, defeated the American Oxonian, Gravem, by 6—1, 6—1, and 6—4 and the Spaniard, Count de Gomar, 6—1, 6—3, and 6—4 respectively.

The most important results, to-day, were the victories of the English hope, Miss McKane, and the American champion, Mrs. Mallory, who now oppose each other in the second round in what will probably be the key-match of Ladies' Singles.

Sir George Thomas, Kingscote, Gordon Lowe, Misu and Frenchmen Gobert and Barotra are all second-round winners.

BORROWING MYSTERIES.

New York, Wednesday.

The Canadian Government Loan of 100 million dollars at 5 per cent. has been over-subscribed in two hours.

The news item we have reproduced above was supplied by Reuter nearly two months ago. Canada is within the Empire and the facility with which she got 100 million dollars from the United States is in glaring contrast with the misadventure of India's £12½ million loan. The Indian loan was due to close in London on 19th June, but it actually was choked off on 17th June. After the mysterious and hurried transaction, we were quietly told four days later that the loan was a frost and nearly 63 per cent. of the amount was left in the hands of under-writers. When two days previous to the notified date of closing, the loan was taken off the market, we in India assumed that it had been over-subscribed and that it became unnecessary to keep it open. Along with the premature closing of the loan, the Government of India announced their six per cent. loan in India. An explanation is due from the authorities concerning the mystery of this unsatisfactory transaction. Reuter has tried to give us the reason of a sudden slump in gilt-edged securities in London but no intelligible meaning could be extracted from the explanations supplied. Why is it that the loan was choked off two days before due date and the result proclaimed a failure? When the ten-million sterling loan was launched towards the end of 1921, money was dearer in London, the bank-rate being 5 per cent against the current 3½ per cent. Mail papers are full of references to stagnant conditions in the London market, depositors placing money for 1½ per cent at times. The loan recently launched was virtually a six per cent. issue on the credit of the Government of India. The cable which announced the closing of the loan expatiated on "the belief that the situation is more settled in India." With the situation more settled, with easy money and with generous terms for the issue, it is difficult to hazard any creditable explanation of the failure. Conjectures are of course possible and the public are not slow to make guesses. Considering that the reduction of the London bank-rate was timed to occur simultaneously with the loan, the terms offered by the Secretary of State were more than ample, but the facts merely add to the mystery.

On the face of it, the affair smells of artificial failure. A loan which is open for one week generally draws in the bulk of the money during the last three days. Intending subscribers are wont to wait a little before they place their application deposits. In this case, the loan was choked off at the critical moment and the result declared a 63 per cent. failure. Left to unrestricted conditions, the issue would, in our opinion, have been duly absorbed. What is the secret of this supercilious ease, except that India is committed to huge railway borrowings and that city potentates feel that they can dictate terms in due course? The Legislative Assembly was presented with the Rs. 150 crore resolution at the last session. Before that formality, India could, in December, command a loan of ten millions in a tighter market on the same terms as were recently offered and impliedly pronounced inadequate. With the over-advertised resolve to spend Rs. 150 crores in a short space of time, British bankers were, it would seem, led to feel their own way in the transaction. They apparently are alive to the fact that owing to her political subjection, India was bound to wait on their pleasure. British manufacturers were in glee that orders would come. Why, even orders for German goods are executed through British middlemen! When the Die-hards attacked Mr. Montagu, and the Premier stood forth to propound the causes of unrest, the latter dwelt on Railway conditions in India as a contributory cause of unrest and commended the Acworth Report to the members as a mine of information. From the Premier to the lowest unemployed, they all seem gratified at the needs of Indian Railways. As a matter of fact, it is doubtful if India could afford to meet the demands of British bankers on the one side and British manufacturers on the other. Their rates were stiff and are stiffening—in the absence of competition. If two binoculars are ordered out of the country, industrial M. P's fall into hysterics and rave about Empire and the fading brightness of the brightest jewels. Lord Winterton mollifies them declaring that the dummy chief is fully alive to the situation. Peace is restored, Indian loyalty assured and vexatious interpellations cease.

The time has come for India to ask whether, consistently with her loyalty to the King-Emperor, it is not permissible for her to borrow and buy in the cheapest market. When the question of store purchase arises, the Government of India nominally vote for competitive buying but tacked on to the declaration is the term "consistently with delivery." This "delivery" business throws other manufacturing countries out of court. They might be cheap, but then they lack "delivery;" so they go and we pay, for "delivery" is the thing. Private businessmen will testify whether, say, Belgian or American manufacturers do the part of "delivery" or scamper off "inconsistently with delivery." We have pointed out before how British businessmen so adjust their patriotism as to buy American machinery when it is available at cheaper rates. There is no shadow of doubt that India could get, if free to do so, both money and goods in America cheaper than in Britain. But then, the Empire? The example of Canada refutes the selfish humbug. America would welcome the offer. And to-day if a 5 per cent. Indian loan is floated in New York, it would fare far better than in London where Empire-proud bankers scorn to welcome better terms, confident of their monopoly in money and contracts. Last year, when the enormity of a 7 per cent. loan was disclosed as an accomplished fact, Mr. B. F. Madon pointed out the hopelessness of the business and proposed that India should make an effort to borrow in America. It can be done, but then it is not done. Meanwhile, borrowing mysteries are becoming as rampant as contract mysteries.

INDIA AND LABOUR PARTY.

The resolution passed by the National Labour Conference in Edinburgh approving of the Labour Party's support of the Government of India Act and urging the Party to support any further legislation in the direction of securing for the people of India the same measure of self-Government as the Dominions is a fresh illustration of the futility of expecting the British people, or any section of it, to understand the realities of the situation in India, much less to make the cause of India their own. The Labour Party was expected to be the most loyal and sympathetical champion of India's cause. But what do we find? The country has been the victim of a most rigorous campaign of repression. Its greatest leader—the saintliest of men—along with many of the noblest of his countrymen, is in prison. The National Labour Conference, to judge from Reuter's message, has not a word of condemnation to say of the reactionary policy of the authorities. On the other hand, the resolution which it has passed goes back on the declaration solemnly made by itself two years ago in favour of self-determination for India. Now, all that the Labour Party will condescend to do for India is to support "any further legislation in the direction of securing for the people of India the same measure of self-Government as the Dominions" if and when the Government choose to introduce such measure. Forgotten is the solemn promise made to India to determine her own destiny. And what is more, the Labour Conference has betrayed the cause of Indian workers, because in supporting the Government of India Act it supports a piece of legislation which favours the capitalist, landowning and other privileged classes at the expense of the workers who are practically excluded from any share in the administration of the country. The moral of the backsliding on the part of British Labour is clear. Swaraj must be won in India by Indians with their own unaided efforts.

Notes of the Day

Mrs. Naidu's Illness.

We regret to announce that, owing to a severe heart-attack, Mrs. Sarojini Naidu has been ordered by her doctor to take complete rest for at least six weeks, and has, therefore, been compelled to give up all idea of touring India with the Civil Disobedience Inquiry Committee. At a moment like the present, when so few great Nationalists are at liberty, the serious illness of so popular a leader is a national loss; but Mrs. Naidu's need of rest, after so much hard work, is nothing wonderful. We hope that she will soon be well again.

Mr. Sastri's Lament.

At the fag-end of his "Imperial" mission the consciousness seems to have dawned on Mr. Sastri—a greater admirer of the Empire than Cecil Rhodes—that after all India has not gained much by the British connection, in which he sees the hand of Providence. Mr. Sastri is a "statesman." It is not for him to call a spade a spade but he must needs call it a diamond or a rose. He had not gone to Australia to tell his Imperial colleagues that India had gained nothing and lost much by Providence's English patriotism which ordained, according to him, "that India should pass under the protection of Great Britain for some great purposes." Perhaps, while making grandiloquent speeches on matters imperial Mr. Sastri was, as if by a flash, reminded of the sage observation of his illustrious guru who said that British rule had so dwarfed the Indian people that the tallest amongst them looked mere pigmies. And Mr. Sastri, feeling himself a pigmy by the side of his hosts, was constrained to admit that after all Britain had left many of her "great purposes" unfulfilled. And yet this "representative" of a nation which has yet to win its freedom speaks on international problems and pleads for little States in the League of Nations. Vanity of vanities! The fundamental basis of the League of Nations' constitution, Mr. Sastri says, is democracy. "In international matters, the affairs of little State, when in jeopardy, are of as tender a concern as those of a big State." Does Mr. Sastri imagine, for example, that the affairs of India are as important as those of South Africa, let alone England? Does he not, on the other hand, ask his countrymen there to rely on the justice of General Smuts, to cultivate the good opinion of their masters? Fortunately, India's destiny is not in the hands of Mr. Sastri, his Imperial colleagues, or the farce of a League of Nations, where men may win their spurs in oratory or silver-tongued eloquence but not in sturdy and uncompromising patriotism.

Hindu-Muslim Unity.

The occasion of our reverting to this old theme is a Muslim lady's letter to the "Tribune" from far off Bannu, which was reproduced in the "Chronicle" the other day. It is really a pleasure to come across an Indian lady better versed in the history of her country than many of our neo-Liberals, for whom the history of India begins with the Battle of Plassey. If there be any in this country who still believes that Hindu-Muslim Unity is the work of unscrupulous agitators, he would do well to study carefully Khadija Begum Ferozuddin's letter and he will learn that the Unity does not rest merely on common grievances but has its roots deep in the history of the country. He will further greatly profit by her straight talk on the status of woman and its effects on a nation's fortunes. Appealing to Indian women to awake and serve their motherland, she says: "It cannot be denied that men are the cause of our ignorance. But let us make them realise their mistake. Let us show them that we are not mere chattel. Our fall is India's fall, our rise will be India's rise. It has been the conservatism and ignorance of my Hindu sisters which has been a great barrier in the way of Hindu-Muslim Unity." It would have been better if she had proceeded to point out how in ancient Hindu as well as Saracenic times woman had an honoured place. There cannot be too much emphasised that next to the important detail of the national programme like the Hindu-Muslim Unity, the boycott of foreign cloth and the stupendous task of Swaraj can much headway be made unless more opportunity is given to women to give their best in the service of the country. Let us hope that many more women like Begum Ferozuddin will come forward to hasten the happy day when India will, as of yore, be a land of heroes and women, if not for heroes to live in.

A Welcome Beginning.

One by one the barriers of [illegible] are responsible for the inhuman treatment of the unfortunate "untouchables" are crumbling down and on Wednesday a message from Lahore described a dinner where the "touchables" sat down in token of fraternity with the erstwhile "untouchables." It has been often remarked that the average Hindu has no qualm of conscience in shaking hands with the Christian, but when a well-known Hindu whose touch was pollution became a Christian the latter embraced Christianity only if he became a "Christian." It is impossible to estimate the harm that has been and India have suffered through the cruel treatment towards the victims of the caste order. Not the least beneficial result of the Lahore dinner will be that about two to three hundred members of the "higher" castes who dined with their sisters of the "depressed classes" are naturally more considerate to the latter. We hope the dinner was not merely as a show but is symbolic of the changed mentality of "high" caste Hindus towards their suppressed brothers.

The Standing Committee.

Mr. V. J. Patel's recent rebuke that the Standing Committee was there merely to register the decrees of the Municipal Commissioner was well deserved. This Committee is supposed to keep the economic conscience of the Municipal Corporation and generally to supervise the finances. But what happens actually as very easily be seen at any of the meetings of the Standing Committee. It must be stated here that each member is paid at the rate of Rs. 30 per meeting and the competition to get in is very keen. When a member gets into the Corporation his ambition is to enter the Standing Committee, thence to climb easily to the seat of the Chairman and thence to the chair of the president of the Corporation. What is the modus operandi of the committee? The members meet and the items of expenditure are brought forward one after another, the chairman drones out the usual formula either "sanctioned" or "recorded" as he is a bold member, indeed, who resist the decision. As soon as the verdict of the Chairman is pronounced, the next item is taken up, and so on; the whole agenda is gone through in half-an-hour's time. Formerly this mummery took even less time, and it must be remembered that during a single sitting thousands of rupees belonging to the tax-payer are disposed of. Very rarely do we find a member who raises an objection and still more rarely we find him sticking to his objections even if he is well-intentioned he has to trim his sails according to the wind, for I must remember that at the next election will surely be thrown out. This process of weeding out troublesome members, like Mr. Sukhtankar and others, has gone on apace and now the Standing Committee is a harmonious whole, where the voice of contiersy is effectively hushed. That is why Mr. Patel was right when he said the other day that the Committee only registered the decrees of the Commissioner.

The Corporation and Tramway Fares.

The Corporation has stultified itself in the eyes of the public by rejecting the proposition put forward by Dr. R. T. [illegible]. The proposition was a simple one in accordance with section 36 (p) of the Municipal Act, the councillors being asked to take part in the voting when [illegible] the revision of the tramway fares came up for discussion. The Corporation is a powerful organisation and a number of the Corporators including Messrs. Sanders and, Dr. Viegas said, were promised by the Company. [illegible] Dr. Viegas on the point and the Chairman his ruling that the shareholders should not vote and that he himself should not vote to take part either in the discussion or voting. No harm could have been done by passing the resolution as was the case in the Bombay Corporation's money by asking for the opinion? Dr. Dadamanji said in his letter, because the wasted discussion on money so often—an argument! In this connection, we strongly deprecate the attitude of the members, who would not give a hearing to Dr. Viegas, simply because he was giving them some home truths. The Corporation must bestir itself at once and make a strong, emphatically protesting representation against any increase in the fares. The Tramway Company is already paying a handsome dividend, and there is no justification for making the shareholders an additional present by robbing the public.

Khaddar.

[illegible] there is the slightest hope for the [illegible] alteration even in the next interesting items of the non-cooperation programme detracts from the high claims of Khaddar or the movement as one of [illegible] purification. It was primarily on account of this reason that when the public were asked to understand that some Andhra students were palming off mixed khaddar which did not stand the strict test of Mr. Deshi, Andhra fell in bad repute. There would have been absolutely no room for such dealings if the wearers of khaddar had given up all craving for fine texture. Thick khaddar manufactured out of hand-spun yarn can be easily distinguished even by a layman from mixed yarn and mill cloth which is either prepared from or woven out of mill yarn. Andhra, being sensitive of national honour, realised its responsibility for being a willing party to passing off impure and adulterated for pure khadi as the following remarks of "The Janamabhumi" of Masulipatam show:—

"We are heartily ashamed to think our national reputation has been greatly damaged and is even likely to be destroyed if we do not bestir ourselves. But there are two parties to the [illegible] of mischief, and here as elsewhere the buyers must share the responsibility with the sellers. There is no denying there a growing craze to own khaddar shops, but nowhere a craving to [illegible] khaddar. The result is that places where people enjoyed some kind of [illegible] in the production of genuine khaddar are flooded with visitors demanding khaddar or its semblance and display it in abundance. They have thus prostituted the innocent [illegible] Pavanjam and elsewhere for the sake of filthy lucre. When people talk of Coconada khaddar they might as well talk of snakes in Iceland. Bezwada has no prominence only because some of the khaddar had been brought for sale and sale on the 30th-31st July '21 at the time of the meeting of the All India Congress Committee. Since then Bezwada felt that she must honour the cheques drawn upon her and honour them in the most dishonourable. When, therefore, you come across fraudulent khaddar remember you have to hang to the shop-keeper as well as the

Nevertheless, some reinforcements have reached the city. A motor lorry packed with rebels from Kildare was fired on near the Four Courts and the leader was shot dead. The railway has been cut at Kildare and the bridge outside Limerick Junction blown up, thus severing communication with Cork.

GUERILLA WARFARE.

(Reuter's Telegram.)

LONDON, June 29.

Field guns and trench mortars were still bombarding the Four Courts at eight this morning. The firing throughout the night was accompanied by sharp machine-gun and rifle fire, owing to the activities of snipers in various parts of the city.

The casualties hitherto are fifteen killed and thirty-seven wounded, mostly civilians. The rebels' casualties are not known.

While the Four Courts are the centre of hostilities and operations they are assuming the character of an investment, the most menacing feature for citizens is the fact that the rebels, who retreated from Fowler Hall, are developing guerilla activities and are cooperating with comrades, who are believed to be in considerable strength throughout the city, in operations from commandeered hotels, shops, dwelling houses and also in ambushes. None of the rebels are clad in military uniform. Free State troops driving to and from barracks at Beggar's Bush yesterday evening were constantly fusilladed in one quarter, which was notorious for the trouble in 1921.

News from the country is uncertain as Dublin is isolated, but it is known the rebels are occupying the town hill commanding Drogheda, which is invested by the Free State troops.

General Bryan Mahon from Dublin interviewed at Holyhead estimated the attacking force at from twelve to fifteen hundred men, who are constantly being reinforced from the country.

The East Indian merchants and other business men entertained Mr. D. T. Chadwick to lunch to-day, at Cannon Street Hotel.

Sir C. It was also gratifying that the present holder of that office was coming to London.

Mr. Chadwick said he warmly appreciated the ready co-operation and friendliness of the East Indian firms during the last five years. He was extremely sorry to go, for he had enjoyed his work in London.

The luncheon was organised by Major Norman McLeod and the large company present included Sir G. Sutherland, Sir Marshall Reid, Sir M. Turner, Sir S. Demetriardo, Sir Malcolm Hogge, Sir Charles Armstrong, Sir H. Procter, Sir T. Birkett, Sir Henry Burt, Sir Frank Carter, Sir Cecil Graham and Sir Erskine Crum.

The Cotton Spinners' Federation official declared that he was convinced that the crisis was now over, and although he did not predict an immediate boom, a distinct revival had set in. The trade was broadening in every direction. Both the Home and Foreign markets show an appreciable improvement which is noted in buyers' confidence. Unemployment is significantly declining.

Germany, continued the Premier, was carrying out considerable works for the improvement and extention of railways. The Allied must insist on the application of real export taxes. The money the Germans had accumulated abroad must be made available for the Reparations. A severe control of Germany's finances must be established. If Germany refused to accept such a control the Allies must be able to take measures, collectively or separately.

GRAVE WARNING BY MESSRS. ANDREWS AND POLKS.

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA. June 29.

The following statement with reference to the position of Indians overseas has been issued over the signatures of Mr. H. S. L. Polak and Mr. C. F. Andrews:—

A SERIOUS CRISIS.

The news which has recently come to us both from South and East Africa and also from Fiji is of so serious a charcter, that we venture to appeal through the Press to the people of India to take up the cause of Indians aboard with greater energy and determination in order to seve them from impending disaster. A crisis now faces them of unexampled magnitude and it appears to us very largely to depend on the full and emphatic expression of public opinon in India, whether the Imperial Conference resolution with regard to equal Indian status passed at London in July 1922 is to be made effective or not.

In South Africa, the key of the situation is Natal. The bulk of the South African Indian community is concentrated in that province. Natal actually owes its prosperity to the Indian labourers, who were brought in to save it from insolvency. The majority of Indians there are now colonial-born. All fresh Indian immigration has been stopped. In a short time the whole Indian population wil be South African by birth. The European population, on the other hand, is continually being reinforced by immigration from England and elsewhere. This constant stream of fresh immigration from Europe (while immigration from India is closed) makes it quite certain that the European population in Natal will soon largely outnumber the Indian. In the other provinces of South Africa, the Indian population is negligible roughly speaking about 21,000 as compared with nearly a million and a half Europeans. Even this disproportion is growing greater at every sensus because of the rapid increase of Europeans owing to immigration.

NATAL'S INDEBTEDNESS TO INDIA.

Yet in spite of the facts (1) that Indians were invited to come over in the first instance, (2) that they made Natal prosperous, (3) that the majority of them are now South African born, (4) that no further Indians are allowed to enter,—in spite of all these facts, the Europeans with louder and louder voices are increasingly demanding either (1) that the Indians should be as far as possible repatriated, or else (2) that those who, remain should be segregated and otherwise penalised

Sir John Lange's Commission acknowledged these facts. Nevertheless even this report made recommendations which, if put into practice would have seriously curtailed the very few existing Indian rights. The South African Union Government, however, realising the importance of the issue in the large world outside South Africa, was able to postpone any threatened anti-Indian legislation, and the status quo has so far been with some difficulty maintained.

But the anti-Asiatic party in Natal has now repeatedly attempted to force the hands of the Union Government. It has captured the Provincial Council and induced it to pass legislation, which would deprive Indians of several of the most important rights which they still retain. This has been done in the hope either of compelling by public pressure the assent of the Governor General in Council, or else of obliging the Union Government, while withholding assent, to pass the desired anti-Asiatic Legislation, on its own account.

But section 147 of the South African Act of 1909 was passed expressly in order to prevent provincial legislation in Asiatic affairs. For it was recognised that provincial narrowness might involve South Africa in a complicated international situation. Section 147 was designed to reserve the entire control from beginning to end of all matters specially or differently affecting Asiatic to the Governor General in Council, that is to say, the Union Government itself.

ANTI-INDIAN LEGISLATION

What is the legislation which the Natal Provincial Council is trying to force through?

(1) There is an ordinance to substitute for a licensing officer from whom there is a right of appeal upon certain conditions, a licensing Board in rural areas, whose membership will be confined to Europeans. This Board would have final powers of decision in all matters relating to the issue and transfer of licenses,-thereby, in substance, though not in set terms, depriving Indian traders of their former right of appeal on questions of law.

(2) There is an Ordinance, which would prevent Indians in future from acquiring the municipal or urban franchise. This would mean a clear breach of an official promise made as long ago as 1896, and the disfranchisement for all time of Indians born and bred in the Province.

(3) There is an ordinance, whose object is to segregate Indians in Durban by making it legally impossible for them to buy or occupy municipal land in an area ear-marked for Europeans, or to sell such land to Europeans in an area ear-marked for Indians. This is the first time that compulsory segregation has been attempted in Natal.

All this is avowedly only the beginning of the campaign of the anti-Asiatic Party. If it succeeds, it will certainly be followed by further legislation. This in the end must either reduce the Indian population in South Africa to political, social and economic sevitude, or else drive it from the country.

DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS WITH GOVT. OF INDIA.

At the last Imperial Conference the hope was expressed that by means of direct negotiations between India and South Africa "some way can be fouid, as soon as may be, to reach a more satisfactroy position". The fact that direct negotiations have now been opened, leads one to presume that it is not the desire of the Union Government to precipitate a rupture with India. But the Indian Government will suffer greatly in making its own position clear to the South African Government, if it has not the united strength of the people of India behind it. We would venture, therefore, to urge that on this question the unity of all thinking people in India with the Indian Government is essential in order to obtain a successful end to such direct negotiation.

POSITION IN E. AFRICA.

In East Africa, we meet a situation which if anything is more dangerous even than that in Natal. Kenya is not a self-governing dominion, but a crown Colony. Constitutionally, the administration is nothing more than a branch of the Colonial Office in London. The Governor is a subordinate taking orders from the Secretary of State for the Colonies. Great Britain is directly responsible.

At the Imperial Conference, Great Britain accepted the Imperial Conference resolution with regard to equal Indian status. Mr. Winston Churchill was Chairman of the Special Committee that drafted this resolution. He himself accepted the resolution on behalf of the Colonial Office. What followed is almost inconceivable. Scarcely had the ink of his signature dried upon the paper than the Governor of Kenya was sent back by Mr. Winston Churchill himself with a secret document containing proposals fundamentally opposed to the very resolution of the Imperial Conference, which he himself had just signed. If this document had been accepted by the Indians in Kenya and had become law, it would have perpetuated the inferiority of Indians to Europeans in almost every particular. It would have made racial differentiation and racial segregation a part of the law of the land.

DISABILITIES OF INDIANS.

There are four primary disabilities under which Indians labour in Kenya.

(1) They may not acfuire transfer of agricultural land in the Highlands.

When the Indians protested against this invidious distinction, they were told that the Colonial Office had made a pledge to the Europeans, which could not be broken. The so-called pledge referred to is that of Lord Elgin in 1908. Lord Elgin's Despatch, however, needs to be read as a whole. The local officials are told to issue the original Crown grants of land "for reasons of administrative convenience" solely to Europeans. But he added added that His Majesty's Government would not countenance legislation differentially affecting the Indian population. It will be seen at once, that no bar was placed upon the open transfer of the original crown grants at any future sale to any purchaser, who had rights in the country. The Indians had the right of purchase. An act of the legislature would have been required to take those rights away. But His Majesty's Government had expressly stated that no such racial legislation would be countenanced.

SO-CALLED PLEDGE TO EUROPEANS.

The so-called pledge to Europeans has been amply fulfilled, for we have been told on official authority that practically all the original Crown grants in the Highlands have now been made, and Europeans have had them all. But the actual documentary promise to Indians that legal differentiation would not be countenanced by His Majesty's Government has been callously broken. For in 1916 during the war, when the Indian community was helpless under Martial Law an ordinance of the legislature was passed empowering the Governor to veto the transfer of land in any part of the Protectorate between persons of different races. This had been unfailingly exercised against Indians who may desire to acquire legal transfer of land in the Highlands.

(2) It is part of the declared policy

SIND NATIONAL COLLEGE.

TO BE AFFILIATED TO BOMBAY UNIVERSITY.

The adjourned meeting of the Senate of the Bombay University was held on Friday evening, at the Sir Cowasji Jehangir Hall, the Hon. Sir Chimanlal Setalvad, the Vice-Chancellor presiding. The application for affiliation from the Principal of the Sind National College was considered. Mr. K. Natarajan in the course of his lengthy speech remarked that all the schools in Hyderabad owed their existence to indigenous enterprise and efforts. He could not really see how such a college should not be affiliated to the Bombay University. Dr. Jivanji Modi opposing the motion appealed to the Senators to bear in mind the report of the Syndicate on the matter in question. Several other members spoke on the motion which was eventually passed.

The Senate proceeded with the debate on the application from the Principal, Sind National College, Hyderabad, for affiliation as a second grade college for the courses of study prescribed for the First Year and Intermediate Examinations in Arts, and the report of the Committee appointed by the Syndicate to make local inquiry prescribed by the Indian Universities Act. A resolution to that effect was moved by Dr. Harold H. Mann at the previous meeting.

Mr. K. Natarajan in supporting the resolution of Dr. Mann said that Karachi had eight high schools and one of them, he thought, had become a non-co-operation institution. Hyderabad had three girls' school and one of these was converted into a women's college. Looking to the past history of Sind, Hyderabad had been the social and intellectual centre of Sind. One fundamental thing that was required was that the staff of the college must be adequate before an institution can be affiliated. If an educated and cultured man was willing to take charge of the college, it must flourish.

Principal Sahani (interrupting the speaker) said: "It is a big "If."

Continuing, the speaker said it mattered very little whether there were big "Ifs" or small "Ifs." No doubt they could not give educational monopoly to one college. He could not help thinking that it would be very unfair and unjust to refuse affiliation to the college having regard to the fact that the Principal had taken upon himself the task of starting it. He hoped, therefore, the Senate would pass the resolution of Dr. Mann.

Mr. D. G. Dalvi also spoke.

Mr. Raffuidin Ahmad in supporting the motion said after hearing the speech of Mr. Natarajan, he could not see his way to support Principal Sahani. He thought that the organisers of the Sind College should be supported. It was very wise that a college of that type was started.

Mr. Faiz Tayabji, supporting the motion said the first thing essentially required before they could sanction affiliation to a college, was to consider whether it had able and enthusiastic men on the staff. They had got a body of pupils who were willing to join the Sind National College. Such a college, he thought should be affiliated to the Bombay University.

Mr. Mirza Ali Ahmed Khan further supported the proposition.

"REFER TO THE REPORT."

Shamsul-ulma Dr. Jivanji Modi in opposing the motion said that they should not be guided by mere speeches of members, but before they sanctioned affiliation to the Sind College they must hear in mind the report of the Syndicate. The College was not well equipped. It had no laboratory of its own. He appealed to the members of the Senate to look to the words of the report of the Syndicate before passing the motion.

Principal A. L. Wilkinson in opposing the motion said that the members of the Senate should remember the motto "Festina Lente." They did not wish to repeat the mistake that they committed in the case of the Dharwar College. He could see no reason for affiliating this college until it made satisfactory arrangements. Arrangements existing, at present, in the College were not satisfactory. He did not know whether Mr. Earnest Wood would continue to remain Professor of religion when the Sind College was given affiliation to by the Bombay University.

TIDE OF N. C. O.

Mr. H. J. Bhabha opposed the motion.

The Hon. Professor V. J. Kale supporting the proposition said that the Dharwar College referred to by Principal Wilkinson was swept away on account of the non-co-operation movement. He thought therefore, that the example of the Dharwar College should not have been quoted by Principal Wilkinson.

Principal Covernton moved an amendment that the matter be referred back to the Syndicate.

CONCESSION.

On votes being taken, the amendment was declared lost and the original proposition was passed.

Principal K. R. Kanitkar moved as recommended by the Syndicate.

"That the following regulation be substituted in lieu of regulation 41-A. of the B. A. Degree regulations (page 8 of the Addenda to the current University Calendar):—

"41-A. A candidate who has obtained 40 per cent. of the total marks in Compulsory English at any one examination but failed to pass in the honours examination will, if his honours subject be a subject other than English, be excused the examination in Compulsory English and allowed to appear for the honours examination on a subsequent occasion. He will be required to take all papers excepting those in Compulsory English and will be eligible for first or second class honours if he qualifies for them according to rule 40 or 41. Candidates passing the examination in compartments according to the provisions of rules 39A and 41A will not be eligible for any prizes or scholarships awarded at the examination.'"

The proposal was passed.

Sir Temulji B. Nariman, moved as recommended by the Syndicate—

"That in regulation 28 (2) (c) (page 201 of the current Calendar), the words 'attended at least twenty cases of labour, at least six of which he must have personally conducted' be deleted and the following words substituted instead:—'personally conducted at least twenty cases of labour.'"

Dr. R. N. Ranina seconded the motion which on being put to the vote was declared carried.

The Senate, then, adjourned till Friday, the 18th of July.

In connection with a recent Madras message describing the case of insubordination in the 45th Battery Sikhs at Cannanore a fuller and authoritive information received by the "Pioneer" says the Sikh soldier in question insisted on wearing black pagri and refused to wear uniform or do his parades. He was tried by general court martial and sentenced to fourteen years' rigorous imprisonment. The suggestion that the Commanding Officer of the battalion had forbidden the men to wear a certain type of dress when out of uniform was certainly inaccurate.

MR. JAYAKAR AND CONGRESS PROGRAMME.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I hope you will oblige me by publishing this letter in your paper. Now that Mr. M. R. Jayakar has resumed his practice at the High Court Bar it would not be amiss to recall for a moment the circumstances under which he suspended it. The reason why Mr. Jayakar suspended his practice was, as he distinctly stated in public, to give Mahatmaji the opportunity to win Swarajya within a year. Now after the said period of one year is not Mr. Jayakar entitled to resume his practice? Also, as Mr. Jayakar has himself declared before the Girgaum Ward of the District Congress Committee, he conscientiously regards the present Congress programme to be too unsatisfactory to bring the Government to its senses. As Khaddar has not captured the heart of the masses and in spite of the protestations of the leaders against foreign cloth Indian men and women go on "polluting" their bodies with foreign cloth, Mr. Jayakar must have concluded that the present Congress programme, which to all intents and purposes is "Wear Khadi" programme, does not much appeal to the populace. And it is but a political truism to say that a programme that fails to rouse the people requires drastic revision. That is why Mr. Jayakar has raised the standard of rebellion against the present Congress programme by resuming his practice; and you, sir, we hope, will support Mr. Jayakar's action. For, you yourself say in your to-day's leading article on "'Moderation' in Extremis," "There is at present a lull in the national movement." This means that there is nothing in the present Congress programme to enthuse over. In other words the Bardoli programme of the Congress needs drastic revision if the Punjab wrongs are to be righted and self-Government be needed for India.

Now, Sir, if you really desire that this political lull should not continue any longer, then are you prepared to act as Mr. Horniman once acted and will doubtless act again at present? Before the establishment of the "Bombay Chronicle," Bombay, and as a matter of fact the whole of India, was enveloped in political torpor, and the credit of rousing the people from one end of the country to the other goes to two Britishers —Mr. B. G. Horniman and Mrs. Annie Besant. It was Mr. Horniman's pen and Mrs. Besant's tongue that made the Indians shake off their lethargy and realise their position. At present Mrs. Besant is not what she once was. But Mr. Horniman is still true to himself, and full well does every reader of the "Chronicle" know how Horniman the Glorious would act under present conditions and as the mantle of Mr. Horniman has fallen upon you, we wish you to act like Horniman the Glorious. We still refuse to regard the "Chronicle" as an extinct volcano like "New India."—Yours, etc.,

S. A. C.

Bombay, June 27.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—It is very sad indeed that a man of Mr. M. R. Jayakar's type should take up the strange course which he has lately taken. I do not wish for a moment to write about his intention to "revel" against the Congress, because that matter has been so very ably dealt with by you in your leading article of the 29th instant. What I wish to write to-day is to remind Mr. Jayakar of the contract which he had made with Gandhiji in Kashi (Benares). It is a matter of deep regret that Mr. Jayakar has so conveniently forgotten all about it. I give below a translation from 'Navajiwan' (special number) of the 3rd February, 1921. Page 1, for your readers' perusal. "We only reach Calcutta yesterday. We had started from Bombay with the happy news that Mr. Jayakar had suspended his practice till Swaraj is attained. Gandhiji gave the news to Sjt. Das. He became very pleased, Mr. Jayakar had come to see Ganihiji in Bombay on the morning of the 21st and was talking about the practice that he had suspended. I quite remember now what Gandhiji had said at that time. He said 'now' our contract made at Kashi is fulfilled. Only Malaviyaji and Lala Harkisonlal are left. ....."

Does Mr. Jayakar say that he has attained "Swaraj?" Or let him contradict the Statement quoted above It is only too true that all cannot sacrifice like Gandhiji, Nehruji and Das for their country's sake. Will Mr. Jayakar gile a public explanation? —Yours, etc.

AMOOLAKHRAJ P. SARAIYA.

"OVER-THINKING PEOPLE."

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—The present lull in the atmosphere of national activities followed by the efforts of section of congressmen to change the programme of N. C. O. and by the resumption of practice by N. C. O. lawyers, does not augur well for the strength and unity of our cause. The Maharashtra politicians or the "intellectuals" as you call them seemed to sacrifice their party opinion for some time in obedience to the call of Congress. but after joining the ranks smothering their doubts and stifling their differences, they did not put their enthusiasm in the work as they ought to have done as good soldiers. Instead of that, immediately after the incarceration of the Mahatma their differences have again become vocal. When they vacillated at first, they could withdraw with self-respect and without compromising the dignity of the Congress, but to my mind, the running away of a section of Nationalists from the battlefield after once going to it is rank cowardice and not merely intellectual rebellion, as you have rather euphemistically described it.

Your explanation of their attitude is correct in so far as their mental state is concerned, but in effect and essence it is nothing but the same lack of unity, of courage and of faith which continue throughout the history of this unfortunate nation. It is true that the new enlightenment that we have received has taught us to call these qualities by different names. Our heads being crammed with much useless learning, we are as a nation suffering from Intellectual Dyspepsia. Our hearts not being ennobled, there is an emotional Paralysis. Our will being badly trained, we are ailing from moral Debility which results in vacillation, over wisdom and cowardice. We then attribute our narrowness of vision to 'honest diference opinion,' our lack of feeling to moderation and foresight, our weakness of will and lack of faith to wise statesmanship. After deep thought I have come to the conclusion that we have become over-thinking people. That is not the quality of soldiers. With one Lenin and one Trotzky at the head of millions of illiterate peasants, the Russian effected their revolution. With one Gandhi or Mohammad Ali, one Das or Hasrat, to-day we would have been a free nation, had our 'intellectuals', been a little less so and our proletariat a little more so Our soldiers of Swaraj should take lesson from those 250 veiled ladies of Persia who went to their Meijlis at Tehran in order to shoot down their fathers, husbands, and sons if they capitulated to the Russian demands under coercion. Let our sisters imitate their example or emulate the example of those Rajput ladies of your who closed the gates of their houses on coward husbands.

Sir, I have indeed dilated upon our weak points but I have done so not in despair, but with full hope that some of our over-thinking brothers, at any rate, will begin to think a little less and do more in the true spirit of soldiers.

Their's not to think.
To reason why
Their's to work
To do and die.

—Yours, etc.

CHAMPAIGN AGAINST INDIANS ABROAD.

the European settlers, to enforce strict compulsory segregation, both residential and commercial.

(3) The European Convention of Associations is endeavouring to deny Indians equal franchise on a common electoral roll.

(4) Finally, in order to made Kenya "a characteristically and distinctively British Colony"—to quote Mr. Winston Churchill's phrase,—and in the so-called interest of the native the Colonial Secretary purposes to "regulate strictly",—in other words to prohibit,—Indian immigration.

In this last clause lies the most urgent peril to the Indian community. If further immigration can be prohibited and if Kenya can be forced to look economically towards London rather than Bombay then the European settlers are well aware that they will be able to control permanently the unprotected Indian domiciled residents, merely granting them such minor concessions as would do no harm, from their point of view. The sinister significance to India o this last proposal lies in the fact, that it is intended to cut India completely off from its age-long contact with East Africa; and Mr. Winston Churchill has openly declared his desire to establish a great administrative unit, consisting of Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyka and Zanzibar, and having a common policy.

MOVEMENT LIKELY TO SPREAD.

When we turn to Uganda we find the same anti-Indian influence of the Colonial Office clearly at work in the recent decison about Kampala, which enforces racial segregation.

In Fiji, as a recent telegram has announced, the European residents, who form less than one fiftieth of the population, have openly declared that they are unwilling to accept and are determined to resit the local application of the Imperial Conference resolution regarding equal Indian status. There can be little doubt, that this movement of revolt against the resolution will spread further.

We are of the opinion that nothing could be more disastrous in India at the present time than a widespread conviction, that the Colonial Office is determined to reduce so vital a document as that embodying the Imperial Conference resolution of July 1921 with regard to equal Indian status to a mere "scrap of paper." The time appears to us to have come for the Indian Government itself to declare, that there is no possibility of the people of India being willing to remain permanently within the British Commonwealth of Nations except upon the terms of actual and not merely theoretical recial equality. Such a declaration would clear the air. It would show more plainly than anything else to the Colonial office in London and to the South African Union Government, that by these perpetual humiliations and disabilities to Indians abread they are forcing an issue from which they themselves may well recoil.

TO BE HANGED BY THE NECK

TOUCHING SCENE IN COURT.

(Associated Press.)

ALLAHABAD, June 30.

Mr. Yorke, Sessions Judge, Allahabad, delivered judgment to-day in the case of Ghisalal, life-convict who was charged with attempted murder of the Deputy Jailor.

The Sessions Judge, in the course of the judgment, said:—

"In my view of the evidence in this case there cannot be the smallest possible doubt that the accused at the time when he struck the later blows and when he pursued Mr. Fordham out of the factory endeavouring to strike a further blow did those acts with the intention of causing death. Disagreeing with the assessors I find the convict Ghisalal guilty of an attempt to murder under section 307 I. P. C. The accused has pleaded guilty under section 324 I. P. C. I convict him accordingly and sentence him on the 2nd and the 3rd charges to 3 years' rigorous imprisonment in each case. As to the 1st charge it is proved Ghisalal is under a sentence of transportation for life. It seems to me in the circumstances, that it is my duty to pass a sentence allowed by the second paragraph of section 307 I. P. C. and I accordingly sentence Ghisalal to be hanged by the neck until he is dead."

The Judge also found that there was no evidence that the Deputy Jailor Mr. Fordham had ever in any way illtreated any convict or that in particular in regard to Ghisalal. He had been in the slightest degree harsh or unfair and that there was no grave or sudden provocation.

The convict received the sentence with loud cries and had to be removed from the court premises quickly.

CRITICISMS.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—There is no doubt that the resumption of practice by Mr. Jaykar, and Mr. Natrajan's articles "Enter the Counoils" and "No More Non-co-operation" have surprised and grieved their many friends and admirers. They will surprise and sadden the great Gandhiji and the gentle Punditji. They reveal the softening influence of Bombay and the hardening influence of the Punjab. But in any case, I beg of all to be most careful in their criticisms and to abstain from bitter, harsh and unhappy expressions. Let us not forget the fact, that some of our indiscreet expressions in 1918-19 had alienated the sympathy of some of our fine but sensitive friends. Let us not repeat the error to-day. Our great and glorious leader Gandhiji showed the greatest tolerance to all. Let us emulate his noble example in our own humble way. and let us at all possible times follow the injunction of Lord Budha:—

"Speak the Truth—but speak it gently"

—Yours, etc.,—

BARJORJI FRAMJI BHARUCHA.

ASIATIC INVESTMENT CO.

MAGISTRATE'S ORDER RESERVED.

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA, June 30.

The hearing of the case against Mr. L. Laite, Managing Director of the Asiatic investment Corporation on the charge of advertising proposals for an authorised lottery for was resumed before the Chief Presidency Magistrate to-day.

Mr. Langford James continuing the speech for defence argued that a scheme was not lottery but on the contrary offered an intelligent investor means of saving money and additional attraction of securing anticipated or accelerated payment of capital. Mr. James argued further that any action aken by Mr. Laite had been performed in his capacity of Managing Director of the Company and even if the action constituted an offence it was the act not of Mr. Laite but of the Company. The counsel argued that if by reason of the mistake of the fact Mr. Laite considered the company was justified in causing the advertisement to be published, he was protected. It was for that defence that the opinion of the Advocate-General was used. Mr. James said he gave his opinion that the proposals did not constitute a lottery and urged that Messrs. Laite and company were entitled to rely on that opinion.

Mr. Pugh for prosecution said the proposals to pay money prizes were fully manifest in the scheme published by Mr. Laite and had been practically admitted by the defence. It should be added that the witnesses had given evidence to the effect that they were induced to send subscriptions on the belief that there was certain chance of winning a lakh of rupees. He urged that Mr. Laite published the advertisements possibly through other people for the Corporation.

Referring to the opinion advanced by the defence to have been given by the Advocate-General Mr. Pugh maintained it had been put forward to prejudice the court. He submitted it was not known what facts had been placed before the Advocate-General upon which he gave his opinion and the court was not concerned with it. He noted out the Government had instituted the prosecution and must have given it a careful consideration and been satisfied that the opinion attributed to the Advocate-General was wrong. He argued that the question was not whether the Company could be made liable for acts of its servants but whether servant of the company who had committed the offence were liable to criminal law.

The Magistrate announced he would pass orders on July 8th.

SIR J. ROBIN DECLINES PEERAGE.

SENSATION IN HOUSE OF LORDS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 29.

Following the parliamentary agitation in connection with the Government of honours principally arising of the Birthday peerage awarded to South African, Sir Joseph Robinson, who General Smuts, replying to the attack the South African Parliament recently he had never recommended, a sensation was caused by the Lord Chancellor, 5, reading in the House of Lords a letter which Sir Joseph Robinson wrote to Lloyd George, on June 23rd begging King's permission to decline the peerage.

REASON FOR DECLINING PEERAGE.

Referring to debate on his peerage, which took place the House of Lords, on June 22nd, he he never sought the honour, and that as an old man to whom honours dignities can no longer be matters of moncern and would be sorry if the honour be an occasion of such ill-feeling as was manifested in the House of Lords.

COLONIAL SECRETARY NOT CONSULTED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 29.

Lord Birkenhead's announcement was made on the motion of the debate in the House of Lords on a question by Lord Harris asking whether Sir Joseph Robinson was recommended for a peerage for national and Imperial services. Lord Birkenhead said the matter was most difficult and delicate, analysed, at length, the recent creation peerages pointing out that in recent years the opportunity had fallen to a large number of people to distinguish themselves in the service of their country than almost any other time.

"A TERRIBLE OMISSION."

Dealing with Sir Joseph Robinson's case, he said there undoubtedly a grave omission which he would not be repeated in the circumstances in which the recommendation had been made. He added that the Secretary of Colonies was not consulted on the matter (cheers)—as he should have been in order to enable him to exercise his constitutional duty and make himself the mouthpiece of the Dominions and acquaint the Minister of the opinion and desires of the Dominions and generally advise It was realised and admitted that a British citizen resident in, and primarily belonging to, the Dominion ought never be recommended for an honour in that country except with the assent and approval of his Government. The House must consider that pronouncement as an offence and which would undoubtedly guide action in the future, and which if had been exercised on the present occasion might perhaps have prevented much embarrassing discussion.

LATER.

SUBJECT DROPPED.

After further debate on the matter of the grant of honours, in the House of Lords the subject was dropped.

CONSPIRACY TO WRECK THE TREATY.

PROVISIONAL GOVT'S PROCLAMATION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 30.

The proclamation issued by the Irish Provisional Government to-day describes the casualties suffered by the People's Army in defending the citizen's rights against the forces of anarchy which are engaged in a conspiracy to destroy the treaty which gave peace to Ireland and its resources to the people after centuries of usurpation.

Forces says the proclamation are calling the people to engage in a hopeless and unnecessary war with Great Britain. The Republicans are fighting not for the Republic but only to bring back the British. The proclamation dwells upon the Provisional Government's Constitutional aims and says it will not hesitate to appeal to the people to support any Call the Government may be compelled to make.

BARRY WAS CAPTURED

WARNING TO PEOPLE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 30.

A communique issued in Dublin says that the Four Court were entered the troops found mines laid in several places and these were disconnected.

The communique adds that Barry's capture was made in a extraordinary fashion. The garrison at 8-30 yesterday evening appealed on the score of humanity to the remainder of the Free State troops to admit into the Four Courts a uniformed nurse. His suspicions aroused the Commander had the "nurse" taken to a hotel where it was discovered "she" was Barry, one of the signatories to the rebels' proclamation.

The troops passing through the city yesterday were frequently attacked by men in plainclothes standing at the street corners. The troops have shown an extraordinary control in face of such a provocation. The communique warns the people of the danger of assembling in the streets and states that 11 civilians were killed and thirty wounded yesterday.

DR. SA[P]RU'S HLTH-

THE ONLY CAUSE OSIGNATION?

CHANGE OF SUM[M]ER CAPITAL DESIRE[D]

(FROM OUR OWN C[O]NDENT.)

A, June 29.

The official announcenhat Dr. Tej Bahadur Sapru has sents resignation on grounds of health immediate outcome of a rather wild persistent rumour which prevailed mla for some time past attributing alls of reasons for his proposed step. he announcement has only partiallyceeded in clearing away the misuandings and still there are a large r of people who would not be shaken eir belief that the cause of resig is more political than otherwise. incurable belief may be traceable he recent activities of two pro Congress leaders; but there can be nying the fact that health is the firstindeed the last consideration which hmpted the Law member to resign his ffice in the Executive Council of the nment of India. It is stated that heart has been badly affected by the ltitude of Simla and that medical ad strongly against his prolonged stay the hills. According to the communiq resignation will actually take place e date to be fixed according to the conce of the administration but not later the next move of the Government of to Simla i.e., before April 1923. But are not wanting to show that it is exy doubtful if Dr. Sapru would at alble to attend the September Session Indian Legislature. His attendance at time is essentially necessary in view several important legislative meashat are likely to come up as a result labours of many Committees now sitti Simla. But that would depend, I hea the rate of progress which Dr. Sapru mable to make in his health in the plaihe outgoing law member is giving evening party to the officers and staff department on the third July and obably go down to Allahabad for a three' stay there.

INDIA'S CAPITAL.

The resignation of Dr. Sapr the grounds stated raises an importestion of the desirability or otherwise ostaining Simla as the summer cap the Central Government. Only a weeks ago Sir Krishna Gupta off the portentous suggestion that the Gment of India might be asked to remaimla throughout the year only the me of the Viceroy's Executive Counceing allowed to tour in the plains sone in the cold weather. This proposal not appeal to any thinking man sher feasible or practicable and was itly pooh poohed at the time. Since there have been growing signs of evidehat Simla is the most ill-fitted staen as the summer residence. Ev he argument of enervating ite which used to be ed out ad nauseum by the officials hasically lost much of its force in the f a rather warm weather that hasd sway here for the last fortnigh have indeed begun to wonder whyl there should be an exodus to thes, at a huge expense of Indians tax-l money especially in these day financial stringency if the present c and health of Simla continue. standing menace of high altitude wh in fact the only reason for Dr. Sa resignation will, also, be the caus understand of the absence of two three members of the Indian Legisl from its coming session. Surely high time that some serious effort is in the direction of having Delhi as permanent capital of India througout year.

RLY. RISK NOTE REVISIO[N] COMMITTEE.

EXAMINES DEPUTATION OF RLY. COMPANIES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SIMLA, June 29.

The Railway Risk Note Revision Commtee obtained to-day the official view of vaous railway companies, by examining a deputation which appeared on their behal The deputation emphasised that railway were not prepared to accept any extra responsibility for losses through pilferings i case of goods booked at owners' risk, unless the rates were correspondingly raised to cover the additional liability. The existing rates were lowest as compared with those in other parts of the world. The onus of proving theft, losses, etc., as due to wilful neglect or criminal conduct of railway employees should not be transferred to the railways because, that would enormously increase their claims bill. They however agreed that the form be so changed as to make it clear that the railways would lead evidence in court to prove the loss and would supply the claimant with all information in their possession regarding the loss. It was pointed out that while there were dishonest railway servants, there was an equal number of dishonest traders, who put forward false claims and railways must be given protection against the latter. The deputation repudiated the suggestion that the present low owners' risk rates encourage pilferings because, those handling goods could distinguish between goods booked at owners' risk and railway risk.

"HINDUSTAN PANCHAYET."

NOVEL SYSTEM OF ARBITRATION COURTS FOR MADRAS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRAS, June 30.

The "Madras Mail" announces that an organisation known as the "Hindustan Panchayet" has been started in Madras with the object of establishing panchayet courts in all the municipal divisions of the city and also for promoting mass education. These panchayets will impose a sort of voluntary taxation in all divisions where it decides to start work, to enforce payment of such taxes Only moral persuasion will be resorted to, but a form of social boycott to be determined by the panchayets of each village may also be brought into play. The funds will be utilised for the setting up of courts which will try all civil and criminal cases excepting those which arise out of non-commutable offences. The courts will be presided over by a judge and two assessors, the latter to be nominated by the plaintiff and the defendant respectively and the judge will receive Rs. 5 for each sitting. The decrees of the panchayets will be enforced by social boycott or such other means as might be prescribed by the organisation drawn from all sections of the labouring classes, including scavengers. It is claimed that the organisation has nothing communistic about it and its aim is to put an end to the dictatorship of the proletariat, which is the essence of Bolshevism. It does not also believe in the efficacy of civil disobedience nor in flouting Government and going to jail, unless such going to jail was as a result of mass movement. The organisation is started under the presidentship of Mr. Subramaniasiva.

"WAGING WAR AGAINST KING."

CHARGE AGAINST A KERALA CONGRESS WORKER.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

DANDA FISHERMEN'S FATE.

A FALSE RUMOUR.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BANDRA, June 29.

On Wednesday there was a strong rumour in Salsette that some twenty-two dead bodies of fishermen had been thrown up by the sea on the shores of Danda. Upon enquiry the rumour was found to be false. The only ground for the fabrication was that there was some investigation going on regarding a dead body at Danda, but it had no connection with the sea. However the report did make things rather gloomy in various fisher villages in the vicinity where the melancholy tale had reached. Moreover there was nothing preposterous or incredible in the rumour as there have been instances in the past when fishing boats were caught in terrific gales, and swallowed up by the sea with all the occupants and their dead bodies washed ashore. On stormy days one sometimes sees on the shores of fisher villages, groups of fisher-women with tears in their eyes anxiously awaiting the return of their near and dear ones whose home-coming has been long overdue.

"SENSE OF PROPORTION."

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—Apart from the question whether Mr. Natarajan can or should remain a Vice-President of a District Congress Committee, after the resignation of his friend and fellow "Independent" Mr. Jayakar, from that Committee, correspondents who are disposed to criticise Mr. Natarajan for his views and shortcomings as a Congressman, would do well to remember that Mr. Natarajan did not himself seek the honour, but that the Council of the Girgaum District Committee itself, after a full and mature discussion of these very views and shortcomings, deliberately chose, by a majority, to elect him as one of its vice-presidents. Not even his worst enemies can deny that Mr. Natarajan has been very much consistent (in his views regarding Civil disobedience, entry into Councils, boycott of law courts and Government educational institutions and even regarding Khaddar), since the time the non-cooperation programme was outlined down to the present day. He has not swerved an inch from the position he took last year. Knowing all this the Girgaum Council deliberately went out of its way to honour him. Is it fair to blame him for accepting an unsought honour? Moreover, has he been guilty, like Mr. Jayakar, of any somersault since his acceptance of the Vice-Presidentship, that would justify orthodox Congress critics should turn up their noses or throw stones at him now? In my personal opinion the Girgaum Council was guilty of an error of judgment in trying to thrust the honour on Mr. Natarajan, knowing well that neither the Council nor Mr. Natarajan would feel comfortable for any length of time in the newly patched up friendship. In these circumstances it is highly unfair and extremely uncharitable to blame Mr. Natarajan or call upon him to resign the honour.—Yours, etc.,

FAIR-PLAY.

MOUNT EVEREST EXPEDITION

GENERAL BRUCE'S PRAISE OF INDIAN COOLIES.

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA, June 29.

Three members of the Mount Everest Expedition Lt.-Col. Edward Strutt, Dr. Longstaff and Captain Finch arrived in Calcutta this morning en route to England. The party covered 320 miles from Rongbuk to Darjeeling in nineteen days. They left before the result of the third attempt to reach the summit was known. This, as General Bruce has already said, is regarded as something in the nature of a forlorn hope, but in an interview with the Associated Press representative, Lt.-Col. Strutt said that given fine weather any future expedition should certainly be able to reach the summit. The early breaking of the Monsoon was a great disappointment to the members of the expedition. They met with the most adverse weather conditions and nobody could face a blizzard at the height of more than 25,000 feet. Lt.-Col. Strutt was loud in his praise of the coolies attached to the expedition.

"BETTER THAN ALPINE PORTERS."

In fact, he said it was impossible to praise them too highly. They gave not a moment's trouble and it was difficult to refrain the men from going up higher, who were not really fit to do so. In this connection he referred to an article which appeared recently in the "Englishman" which gave what was described as an interview with some of the men who accompanied the expedition as coolies or muleteers. Col. Strutt said that in the interests both of the Mount Everest Expedition itself and of the expedition's most splendid and loyal coolies themselves, he must say that the alleged interview gave a totally incorrect impression. He added that there were no coolies of the names given in the article accompanying the party and the statements made in it did not correspond with the true state of affairs. The behaviour of the expedition's coolies was throughout exemplary and in his opinion no coolie who accompanied the party could have made the statements referred to. The coolies attached to the expedition consisted of Sherpas and Bhutias from Eastern Nepal. They numbered forty and were better than best Alpine professional porters ever met with by the members of the party. Twelve of the coolies actually reached the height of 25,000 feet and the whole number worked tirelessly and without rest. Lt.-Col. Strutt, Dr. Longstaff and Captain Finch left Calcutta this evening for Bombay and they are returning to England by the "Macedonia" on Saturday. Major Morehead who returned from Rongbuk with them is remaining for the present in Darjeeling. The remainder of the expedition is still in Tibet and is expected to return after the third attempt on the summit.

PRESIDENT TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRAS, June 29.

INCOME TAX ASSESSMENTS.

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA, June 29.

At the annual meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of India and Ceylon in January last a resolution was adopted urging on Government the necessity of recognising the equity of making a provision for business losses when computing income-tax. The resolution was forwarded to the Government of India and the latter replied that they were not prepared to accept the proposal made in the resolution. The committee of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce have now suggested to the Associated Chambers that this question should not be allowed to drop.

IMPERIAL POLICE SERVICE EXAMINATION.

A Press Note states:—

The exact date is under the consideration of the Government of India, and will be communicated to applicants by the Inspector-General of Police as soon as it is fixed.

The examination will be held at the Elphinstone College, and will be conducted under the supervision of Mr. A. L. Covernton, I. E. S., Principal of that College.

Candidates desirous of competing at the examination should address their applications to the Inspector-General of Police, Bombay Presidency.

According to the "Madras Mail's" Ootacamund correspondent, orders have been issued abolishing two more posts of personal assistants to District Collectors and the abolition of two more will soon be carried out. This will mean the abolition of eight posts altogether out of eleven and the remaining three will be abolished as soon as possible.

"Told I was Incurable"

Our portrait is of Mrs. WHELAN, of 105, Church Street, North Shields, England, who writes:

"I have suffered for over five years with abscesses in the face and neck, and have been through two operations, but they did me little good, and I was told I was incurable. My face was in a terrible state and I often prayed to die. Then my husband wrote from his camp saying that one of his chums had been speaking to him about 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and told me to try it. Well, I bought a bottle, and after using it the effect was wonderful. I could see it was clearing my face, and most of the severe pain left me, so I kept on using the Mixture, and after seven weeks I am cured."

SUFFERERS from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, should realise that lotions and ointments can but give temporary relief—to be sure of complete and lasting benefit, the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter, the true cause of such troubles. ### PIECE-GOODS.

Some activity has been noticeable in the Cloth Market during the past week. The lower prices quoted by some big merchants have induced buyers to purchase fair lots of known cloths. At present the goods have only changed hands amongst the dealers in the bazaar but the cheaper rates will attract up-country buyers and it is hoped the goods will soon go into consumption. After waiting for a very long time the merchants are making efforts, to clear off their old stocks even at heavy sacrifices. This will no doubt result in financial facility and will enable the dealers to do fresh business when the opportunity offers itself. Clearances have been on a fair scale. The favourable reports of the monsoon will help to stimulate trade and fresh demand may be expected in the near future, the more so as the Manchester market has been firm, and heavy advances have been quoted with distant deliveries. For Grey Shirtings a shilling per piece more, is required on recent purchases and delivery cannot be had earlier than September.

A lot of 42 bales of 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches by 38 yards Grey Shirtings Nos. 4038, 4238, 4438, 4638 and 4838 in Japanese style finish has changed hands in the bazaar at Rs. 15 per piece average, and the buyers are now quoting eight to twelve annas per piece more for reselling. 44 inches by 22 yards Greys Jaconets have been scarce White Shirtings have not attracted much attention. Blue Heading White Mulls in 36 inches by 20 yards worth Rs. 6-4-0 per piece and in 45, 50 and 55 inches by 20 yards of the values of Rs. 8-8 average and Rs. 9 average have been in better request. A lot of 150 cases of 25 inches by 18 yards White Nainsooks Nos. 66012, 66013, 66023, 66033 and 66043 has changed hands amongst the dealers in the bazaar at Rs. 3 for the first quality and other qualities at a difference of one anna per piece. These purchases are more or less of a speculative nature in the hope of seeing an improvement in the market in the near future. The rate of exchange has shown some improvement, but there is some uncertainty regarding its future course. The rate of interest has gone down as the money market is easier. A sensation has been caused in Lancashire Cotton circles by the issue of a receiving order in bankruptcy against the Cotton Mill Magnate Sir William Hopwood, known as the "Napoleon of Finance," whose deals for a few years aggregated £30,000,000 and who in 1919 had bought up thirty mills.

It is gratifying to note that after an interval of about six and a half years, the Bombay Native Piece-goods Merchants' Association are now making efforts to bring about the fixity of the rate of freight for carriage of piece-goods from Great Britain to Bombay. It will be remembered that during the war the freight contract that existed with the Conference Liners terminated on 31st December, 1915, and since then there has been no contract and the freight is being charged at the open market rate. Owing to very high rates of freight which existed during the war and thereafter it was not thought desirable to make a contract and bind oneself for a long period at the abnormal rates. But the present attempt is a timely one and it is possible that an agreement before long may be brought about in the interests of the piece-goods trade. Tenders have been invited by the Association from Shipowners on the old terms for the period of a year atleast or five years at the most to reach the Secretaries on or before the 30th September, 1922 and it is understood that individual lines will be given preference over those of connections of Lines.

YARN MARKET.

June, 30.

There is no special feature of any importance noticeable in our market during this week except that the prices all round have been maintained at last week's level. The bulk of inquiries is no doubt increasing but actual business is still not on a large scale in as much as buyers are hesitating to effect their purchases at any enhanced rates while sellers having now begun to realise, though late, the exact situation, are unwilling to part with their stocks at buyer's price. It is now clear to them that it is detrimental to their interests to undersell their holdings when it is impossible to replace them even at the same price and that prices are bound to improve slowly and slowly when shortage is felt.

English yarns have been moving well. Doubles have been in good demand and a good quality 2/40s. ready delivery is difficult to secure. Goods to arrive and even shipments have been sold at remunerative rates, 2/60s. grey and bleached have also been scarce and advanced by about 1¼ anna per lb. single yarn have kept steady. Mercerised yarns and warps have also improved to some extent. A good lot of 2/40s., 2/60s. and Mercerised yarns and warps has been booked for June and July shipments but large business has not been possible owing to higher prices in Manchester.

Japanese yarns have remained steady at last week's rates, except in 20s which has improved to 1-2-6. Fresh forward business has not been practicable.

Indian yarns do not show any change. Prices fluctuate more or less in accordance with cotton movement. Demand is still not very encouraging especially in counts above 12s. China demand is again slack partly due to the end of the month and partly to unfavourable exchange. A good lot of 2/40s grey Madhawjee Mills has been sold at a better price. Indian Mills, as a rule, are still quoting higher prices and bazar dealers are unable to increase their present limits. Business therefore is small.

As for the future, though much more will depedn upon the crop reports from New York prices are not likely to go down and the circumstances all round are not in the least discouraging.

COLOUR MARKET.

June, 29.

The market continues without any significant fluctuations. Alizarine 20 per cent. had some business at Rs. 95/100 per cwt. I. P. quality is quoted at Rs. 360 per cask of 440 lbs. Congo-Red is in poor demand and the prices are steady. Benzo-Purpurine had good demand and fairly good business passing at Rs. 3-4-0 per lb. Delta Purpurine has poor demand. Magenta Crystals changed hands at Rs. 8/9 per lb. Malachite Green remains silent. Sulpher Black has fair business at Rs 1-12-0 per lb.

SUGAR MARKET

June 30.

During the latter part of last week our market ruled very strong on reports of Firm advices from Europe and Java and with importers buying Mauritius for Exports, dealers became confident and a good business was done in White Javas T. M. O. June Shipment at 20s. 4d. to 20s. 8d. and July-September at 20s. 6d. to 21s. 3d. Free Bombay Harbour. Since this week the advices from Java, Europe and America are easier and dealers have become nervous again and are sellers at six pence below the prices asked by Importers. Karachi and Calcutta markets remain quiet but steady with fair business doing.

Java market ruled strong last week with large business done, since this week there is reaction and prices are easier.

American market remains steady with good business doing.

The following are the Bazar rates and stocks :—

T. M. O. no stocks.

Beet Rs. 23-2-20s. 6d. F. B. Harbour stocks 50,000 Bags.

MILL STORES.

June 30.

There is practically no upward movement in the mill-stores-market. The values are almost stabilised at low levels, and forward indenting prices have no further fluctuations. Import business in several commodities which have appreciably gone down locally has become impossible. Healds are offered at Rs. 2/4/0 locally whereas the forward price in sterling is 33d. C. I. F. C. I. Reeds have gained some strength owing to slight scarcity. Leather-sundries has comparatively better demand. No interest has been evidenced in woolen-goods which are conspicuous by an absence of demand. The quotations are as follows :—

CONGRESS AND COUNCILS.

To the Editor of "The Chro-

Sir,—All those who have been closely following the course of Indian politics know it as a matter of fact that, even as early as October, 1921, the Congressmen who belonged to the political school and philosophy of the late Mr. Bal Gangadhar Tilak began to show signs of discontent and disapproval of the non-violent non-cooperation programme of Mr. Gandhi and at the Provincial Conference held at Akola, the attitude of the Mahratta party in the Congress became apparent. It was then feared that, by the time of the Congress at Ahmedabad, the Mahratta party would grow in volume and intensity to such an extent as to cause a split in the Congress camp. But the hand of Providence in the form of repression by the Government intervened and the catastrophe was averted through the genius and personality of Mr. Gandhi. However, the clouds did not pass away. The perfervid element of the Mahratta party became gradually vocal in its denunciation of the Congress programme, i.e., the non-violent non-cooperation programme, and with the incarceration of Mr. Gandhi and his consequent disappearance from the helm of the Congress, it began to assert itself, with the result that, speaking without any equivocation, a split in the Congress has become inevitable. It may come sooner or later than the next annual session of the Congress. But it is bound to come, because of the changed attitude of a section of the Congressmen, especially, the Mahratta party, regarding the question of entering the Legislative Councils. The party which advocates the Council-entry seems to have lost all faith in the N.C.O. programme. It is no wonder that those in whose veins the blood of Nana Farnavis courses should reject a programme as worthless which does not bring in any immediate return. For aught we know, the unemotional and calculating Mahratta will not retire from the position he has taken. Whether the next Congress approves or not, it is a dead certainty that a large section of the Congressmen will compete every available seat in the Legislative Councils. As to what extent they will be successful no ghost need come and tell us. Figures will prove. Now these advocates of Council-entry are proclaiming from housetops and street corners that they are advocating entry into the Councils solely and purely with the deliberate object of creating a deadlock in the machinery of the Government since they have failed to create such a deadlock by the device of non-cooperation. I shall not be so unfair as to attribute any bad motive to these advocates; but, seeing that all of them are intelligent, clever persons of commonsense, I am unable to resist the impression that the theory of deadlock has been put forward as a bait to catch the imagination, and canvass the vote, of the ignorant and the illiterate electorate. I shall presently show the impossibility, as matters and circumstances are, of creating a deadlock.

Now, this theory of deadlock implies much less than what the theory of responsive cooperation does. While the latter is only occasionally negative, the former is absolutely negative. By virtue of the inherent negative character of the theory of deadlock, its advocates, to be successful, must always be in a majority. In other words, a deadlock cannot be created in the machinery of the Government unless those who are determined on it are always in a majority in the Councils. Though I am unable to find any evident impossibility in the proposition its impracticability appears to be very decisive. The Indian Reform Act of 1919 fixes 70 as the minimum percentage of elective element in the Councils, and therefore to get a decided majority in the Councils, 75 per cent. of the elective number of seats will have to be secured. Is this practicable? Taking the view that the chances of practicability will be greater where there is a wider field for competition, i.e., a larger number of seats allotted, I shall proceed to examine the question of practicability. The rules framed under the Act of 1919 fix the strength of the several Legislative Councils with the number of elected and nominated members in each as follows:—

| Province. | Strength. | Elected No. | Nominated No. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Bengal | 139 | 113 | 26 |
| Madras | 127 | 98 | 29 |
| U. P. | 123 | 100 | 23 |
| Bombay | 111 | 86 | 25 |
| Behar & Orissa | 103 | 76 | 27 |
| The Punjab | 93 | 71 | 22 |
| C. P. | 68 | 53 | 15 |
| Assam | 53 | 39 | 14 |

When looking into the elective number, it is to be remembered that it includes special representations such as European, Anglo-Indian, Landholders, Taluqdars, Commerce and Industry, Indian Christian, University, Planting, etc. In some Councils, these special representations absorb a disproportionate number of elective seats. For instance, in the Bengal Council 28 out of 113 elective seats and in the Madras Council 19 out of 98 elective seats are absorbed by such constituencies. Taking these two Provincial Councils, for illustration, there will be 85 (113—28) seats in Bengal and 79 (98—19) seats in Madras practically left for open competition. To get a bare majority in these Councils, the Congressmen will have to capture 70 seats in Bengal and 64 in Madras. That is to say, they must secure 70 out of 85 seats from Bengal and 64 out of 79 seats in Madras, i.e., more than 80 per cent. of the available seats. It will be found from actual analysis that this holds good in almost all the Provincial Councils. Therefore, so far as the provinces are concerned the theory of deadlock will remain as a chimera until and unless the advocates of the theory are able to secure a bare majority in the Councils. Here it will not be profitless to consider the possibilities of securing a bare majority. They have to reckon with tremendous odds against them. Foremost of all is the claim of the existing occupants of various seats. By three years' work, whether good, bad or indifferent, they will have established a sort of confidence in the minds of their constituents and it is rather ungenerous and unnatural to expect that the constituents will prove ungrateful so suddenly to their erstwhile representatives. Secondly, as in every other game of life, the long purse wins in politics also. The majority of those who now are members of Councils are those who have some stake in the country. In other words, they have some vested interests, and as such they can afford to compete at elections by means of their purse strings and successfully too. Voting qualifications are not such as to enable a majority of the proletariat to actively participate in elections. In a population of nearly 320 millions not more than 5 millions are entitled to vote. Those who will very readily vote for Congressmen are devoid of the capacity to vote. Even taking the percentage of voters who presented themselves at the polls during the last election, the non-Congressmen stand an undoubted chance at the next election. In these circumstances, it will be the height of folly to suppose for a moment that the Congressmen will secure a majority in the Councils by which they could bring about a deadlock. It is next to impossibility.

Regarding the Council of State, it matters little who gets the majority in it. Setting apart the representatives of the Chambers of Commerce, the elected number exceeds the nominated only by 4. From a critical review of the work of the Council of State an honest student of politics cannot but come to the conclusion that the Council serves more as an ornamental appendage to the Indian constitution than as a necessity. In the Legislative Assembly the difficulty of securing a majority is as equal if not more as it is in the Provincial Councils. Of the total of 143 members, 41 are nominated, 20 come under the category of special representation, 82 are elected in the usual manner. The Congressmen must secure 72 seats out of these 82, so as to have a bare majority. For the reasons already stated, this is also next to impossibility. Thus the theory of deadlock must fail. Let the advocates of the theory not therefore deceive themselves and the public by entertaining or holding out the prospect of changing the existing system of Government by entering the Legislative Councils and accomplishing there an impossibility. By all means let them enter the Councils; but let them not do so with a self-deception, with a false token, lest they should prove an object of ridicule afterwards.—Yours, etc.,

SURAT CITY MUNICIPALITY.

(From a Correspondent.)

The readers of the "Bombay Chronicle" can distinguish between facts and fiction and will not accept everything that appears in print unless supported by facts and figures. Figures do not lie. Ever since the N. C. O.'s took the administration of the Surat Municipality in their hands their oppositionists and the supporters of the present policy of the Government tried systematically to ridicule and run down their actions by means of misrepresentations and half-truths with the object of goading the Government to take action under Sections 178-179 of the Municipal Act and the campaign was continued even after the suspension of the Municipality, by printed leaflets and addresses delivered in the presence of the Collector and Government officials. Some of such wild charges were refuted with the aid of facts and figures.

The printed copy of the budget for 1922-23 was out and it was found that the Chairman had failed to accomplish what he had led the Collector and the public to believe he could do and which the N. C. O.'s were alleged to have failed to do through ignorance of finance and lack of forethought.

The figures show frantic efforts to make two legs meet; the opening and closing balances are arrived at much in the same way so hotly condemned by the Chairman himself in his first address delivered in the presence of the Collector; accumulated balance is to be spent away with a vengeance, the huge deficit unrecorded for the past fours years. All this is to be done for that catchword "established order of things", "which means stagnation and subsequent putrefaction" (of brains and everything that has life). Will the public find a better word than colossal ignorance or (negligence) for this state of affairs? It is not the purpose of this criticism to cast reflections on the personalities of the members of the Committee of Management. But the bankrupt budget of the Municipality is a thing which challenges inquiry and revision. Government did not give sufficient time to the N. C. O.'s to show what progress with economy and drastic retrenchment could be effected without increment of taxation. But they were held up to ridicule as fools and revolutionaries. With regard to the statement of Mr. Gandhi about the harassment of teachers we can only say that it is an attempt to conceal facts. The Surat Municipality transferred all its schools with all the paraphernalia to the Rashtriya Kelavni Mandal with requisite legal formalities and the teachers, thenceforth, held the charge of those schools on behalf of the Mandal; when these schools were closed for the December vacation, the locks of these schools were broken open and even the signboards were broken and removed. Months after, the rightful owners or their servants (i.e. teachers) are charged with stealing their own property. This is what is happening now. Two munshis are charged with theft and notices are served on several teachers to hand over certain missing articles.

Until the 15th of December 1921, the school-things and papers were with the teachers. And who can say to what extent pilfering was done during the lock-breaking and school-opening enterprize? The only fault of the poor teachers is that they have the courage to stick to their masters, the Mandal. No amount of white-washing will screen the real offenders whose delight consists in harassing the public.

Mr. Gandhi charges the President with destroying confidential papers kept with him as Chairman of the School Board. He does not say which. Dr. Dixit understands his business well. His sense of duty has been proved to be of a high order and one can safely assert that he will do a thing only if he is legally or morally entitled to do so.

With regard to the notices served on some of the teachers they are in the employ of a properly constituted institution, the Kelavni Mandal; and it was to be expected as being in the proper way that the notices should be served through the Secretary of the Mandal. Regarding the number of children attending the schools no better proof can be given than the attendance report of the Secretary of the Mandal that the number of children on Roll is 7,735 (and not only 7,000).

Regarding the Compulsory Act, Mr. Gandhi is well aware of the resolution of the last Corporation withdrawing the application of this Act. This was done to prevent coercion being practised on children to attend schools. The School Board of the last Corporation had recognised the damage and destroy the Rashtriya schools, now being conducted by the Kelavni and Mr. Gandhi may or may not recognise them. The concluding portion of Mr. Gandhi's letter betrays the soreness of wounded vanity. The remedy to heal it is toleration and forbearance towards his fellow citizens of Surat and doing constructive work rather than attempting to damage and destroy the Rashtroya schools.

Oh, What a Combination ! ! !

LANCHETTE
PRICE INCLUDING POSTAGE AND PACKING
Rs. 5-8

THIS Wonderful Planchette is made of wood and is shaped like a heart. Underneath are two pantagraph wheels about two inches high. There is a hole in the so made plank of board. In this hole is fixed an ordinary pencil which is so adjusted as to form as it were, the third leg of the Planchette. In the centre of the Planchette is fixed an electrified magnetic compound having full SPIRITUAL and MESMERIC power. (This is the special pattern of Professor N. P. Kotie). The Planchette is then placed upon a sheet of white paper and two persons lay their hands lightly upon it, not in any way influencing its motion. Then one of them or a third person, asks a question, and the wheels move. The Planchette traverses the paper, and the pencil, of course, following the motion of the wheels, write, the reply very distinctly and freely. It is not necessary to ask the question aloud, a mental question is quite sufficient, and all tongues are alike to the Planchette. Our Planchette is unique. Any body may use. It immediately writes the answers of the questions put to it. Every body should own a Planchette. Price Rs. 5/8(9s. 4d.) including postage and packing.

NOTE:—Full price refunded in case our Wonderful PLANCHETTE does not work according to our advertisement.

FULL PRICE REFUNDED IN CASE OF FAILURE.

To be had of THE MAGICAL Co, JHANSI (INDIA).

Now is the time to test our Wonderful PLANCHETTE.

REMARKABLE PRESS OPINION.

The "H' Kesari," Volume II. No. 20. Thursday, October 26, :—We have received a wonderful Planchette from Prof. Kotie for Review. Really it is a wonderful pattern of prof. Kotie's invention. We are very much pleased to see its wonders. A person puts a question mentally or verbally and the Planchette moves on the paper and writes the answer neatly. Questions regarding the Past, the Present, and the Future may be put and answers obtained in any language. Anybody may send for this Planchette from the Magical Co., Jhansi, and see the wonders."

A FEW TESTIMONIALS MORE.

M. Simon Esq., of Messrs. Brown & Co., Ltd., writes from Hatton (Ceylon) on the 15th Sept 1921:—I got one of your Planchettes from a friend of mine who came here from India. I can say that it is a very wonderful thing. During my entertainments I am in success every time with your Planchette."

I. B. Honnavarkar, Esq., of the Eastern Bank Ltd., writes from Bombay on the 23rd September, 1921:—I am glad to inform you that I am successful in getting answers from the Planchette that I bought from you recently."
